

ARTS IN EDUCATION

Do you want to offer a fee-based program that falls into the following categories?

- Computer arts: computer skills, animation, digital painting, digital music and video games
- Literary arts: prose, drama and poetry
- Performing arts: music, theatre, sing, dance, comedy and magic
- Social studies: anthropology, archaeology, civics, economics, geography, history, philosophy psychology and sociology
- Visual arts: architecture, ceramics, conceptual art, drawing, motion picture, painting, photography and sculpture

Private Lessons/Groups: The business/organization MUST have appropriate licensure and be insured. Please provide copy of current liability insurance with your application. Insurance must expire after the end of the current school year.

Individuals without a business license: Broward County Public Schools does not approve or deny private, fee-based art lessons for students. Some schools may choose to keep a list of available art lessons at the front office for parents to review. Contact schools directly for more information.

Free Art Lessons: The business/organization or individuals MUST have appropriate licensure and be insured. Please provide copy of current liability insurance with your application. Insurance must expire after the end of the current school year.
