

Music & Performing Arts

For every student in every school

Drama/Theater Vision

- To provide and support school theatrical performance experiences for all school drama departments
- To provide and support quality opportunities for large and small group theatrical assessments.
- To provide quality facilities appropriate for multiple categories of theatrical performances.

Music & Performing Arts Programs

Students who study theatre have unique access to language benefits, including better use of language, story comprehension, creative writing skills, and reading skills.

- Theater courses involve all four fine arts components simultaneously. Music, Dance, Drama and Visual Arts.
- We will assist schools to identify appropriate coursework that matches the goals of the theater program.
- We will advocate and support schools and principals to increase student opportunities.
