

Physical Education

For Every Student In Every School

Physical Education - Vision

Vision: For every student to have the knowledge, skills, and self-efficacy to enjoy a lifetime of physical activity

- Physical Education in Broward County Public Schools is place where:
 - standard-based instruction designed to meet all students' needs occur
 - students are provided a physically and emotionally safe environment to learn
 - students have the necessary equipment for participation and practice
 - students have the necessary class time and feedback to learn and grow
 - students come excited to move, interact, and feel good about themselves

Physical Education Program

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention states that when students receive quality physical education, they can increase their level of physical activity, improve their grades and standardized test scores, and stay on-task in the classroom.
