

Peer Counseling

Anti-Bullying Spirit Week

Glades Middle School

Broward County is promoting the “GO BLUE to END MEAN” campaign. This campaign is inspired by “Mean Stinks” sponsored by Secret Deodorant that was designed to raise awareness of bullying among middle school girls. The campaign challenges everyone to get involved to pledge solidarity to wear blue and stand up to bullying.

The Blue Pinky Swear~

- On Friday, December 6th, the Peer Counselors and Art students will take part in a district initiative and paint pinkies blue in order to Gang Up For Good.

Blue Spirit Day~

- On Friday, December 6th, students will be able to wear BLUE from head to toe to End Mean.

Face Painting~

- On Friday, December 6th, the Peer Counselors and Art students will paint faces blue in order to show school spirit to End Mean.

Blue Ribbons~

- The Peer Counselors will hang blue ribbons in the school to show that we are trying to End Mean.

Chalking to End Mean~

- On Thursday, December 5th, The Peer Counselors will Chalk to End Mean throughout the courtyards.