

A CELEBRATION OF

Educating our staff, students and families on Black History (February)

- Black History Month is an annual celebration of achievements by African Americans and a time for recognizing their central role in the history of the United States.
- Many African American men and women have made significant contributions to the world in areas of politics, science, sports, economics, law, sports, the arts, entertainment, and many other fields.
- It is celebrated each year during the month of February.

A Few African Americans Who Have Contributed to the U.S. Significantly

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
Rosa Parks
Barack Obama
Kamala Harris

